Told me you're a mighty dancer
and I know you're a mighty dancer in college. Have just as much fun in your senior year as I did. I know you will but don't be too hard on yourself. Remember all those fun days of working and on the corner of the lane. Stay
just as you are,
and never help
(just kidding). Hello and I really love
that you are the to kid you, because you can give it

Mrs. Clara Broyles-Sponsor, Julia Bell-Treasurer, Nan Joyner-President, Jeanie Collin-Vice President, Peggy Hackley-Secretary

The primary aims of the S.C.A. have been to provide opportunity for student participation in school affairs and experience in citizenship training. During the 1967-68 school year, the S.C.A. has sponsored numerous activities such as bonfires, the Homecoming Dance, Christmas program, and the Magazine Drive. Salome Rizk, the Syrian Yankee, spoke at an assembly, and the S.C.A. sponsored an "Up With People" program.

The Magazine Chairmen and class captains kick off the Magazine Drive with an opening assembly.

STAFF

To many students, the pop of the flash bulb, the click of the camera, and the rushing around on picture day are the only signs of the activity of its yearbook staff.

But taking pictures is just a part of the job of staff members. They work many extra hours planning pictures, designing layouts, compiling data, and writing copy.

This year the addition of a copy editor and a layout editor and our own photographic developing and enlarging process have enabled us to provide a more uniform yearbook for 1968.

Tommy and Jackie check with Lou Ann on money paid on ads collected.

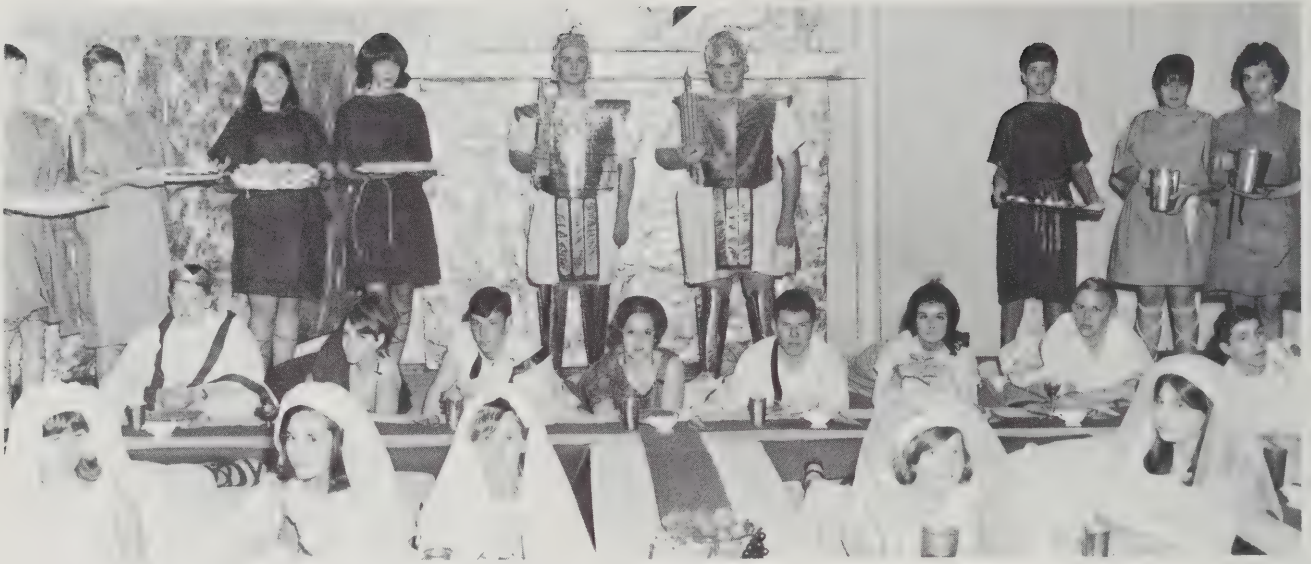

The Junior assistants, Leith, Rusty, Pat, Anne, Ina, and Butch, help the editors with their assignments.

Darlene, Karen, Susan and Joyce type pages for the editors.

Latin I slaves serve the food and drink at the command of the generals.

The purpose of the Luray Latin Club is to encourage an interest in and appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of ancient Rome. Projects for 1967-68 have been outstanding. A sumptuous Roman banquet was held at the Mimslyn Hotel under the skilled leadership of Consul Robin Campbell. In addition, there were the slave sale and the initiation of Latin I students. It is hoped that classical honors will be forthcoming after the state-wide Latin Tournament at Madison College.

Spanish I students exhibit their acting skill in a skit for Spanish Club.

Each year the Spanish Club strives to let the student body know an active club exists. The initiation of new members who dress peasant style and perform pre-arranged tasks for the aristocratic upper classmen is an event enjoyed by the school. Hard work, delicious food, gay decorations, and lots of fun made this year's banquet a great success. Skits, plays, songs, and dances all added to make this an outstanding year of learning and achievement.

BETA CLUB

The Beta Club is an honorary organization whose members are chosen on the basis of leadership, character, and achievement. To be eligible for membership, the student must have maintained a 3.5 average, he must have participated in at least two extracurricular activities, and must be approved for membership by the principal and sponsor.

The Beta Club's principal activities include a free tutoring service, care of the school first-aid room, a tapping ceremony for new Beta Club members in the fall, and an annual student talent show. In March, the club sent seven members to the two-day State Beta Club Convention in Roanoke.

FIRST ROW: S. Hudson, Treasurer; D. Davis, Vice President; E. Moon, President; S. Housden, Secretary. SECOND ROW: Miss Goodman, Sponsor; K. Richards, N. Joyner, C. Black.

THE TATLER

FIRST ROW: Mrs. Broyles, Sponsor; E. Moon, Photographer; C. Rickard, Assistant Editor; C. Martin, Editor; I. Stoneberger, Feature Editor; B. Sullivan, Club Editor; D. Aleshire, Art Editor. The chief aim of the Tatler has been to draw attention to interesting personalities and events through informative and accurate articles. The Tatler staff has provided our school with an interesting and well-organized newspaper. Experience in writing and interviewing and in the mechanics of production have been valuable to those who have served on the staff.

The Quill and Scroll Club has also been formed from certain members of the Tatler Staff and has become a very valuable asset to the school and the Tatler.

FIGHTING '67 BULLDOGS

The Luray High Varsity Football Squad is a comparatively young team in that only six of its players are seniors, or boys who would be playing for the last time, which leaves the backfield and most of the front offensive line open for newcomers. But even with this handicap, the team has shown great promise against their opposition, raising their hopes for the upcoming year.

J.C. ATHLETIC BANQUET

The first annual Luray Jaycees' Athletic Banquet was held Tuesday night, May 21, at the Luray Elementary School. The banquet, which is to become an annual affair, is meant to be a means of paying tribute to the athletes of Luray High School.

The highest honor of the evening was paid to Eddie Hall, who received the Albert "Hap" Heiser Memorial Trophy, symbolic of the Luray High student who contributed the most to athletics during his school years. The trophy is named in honor of the late sports editor of the Page News and Courier.

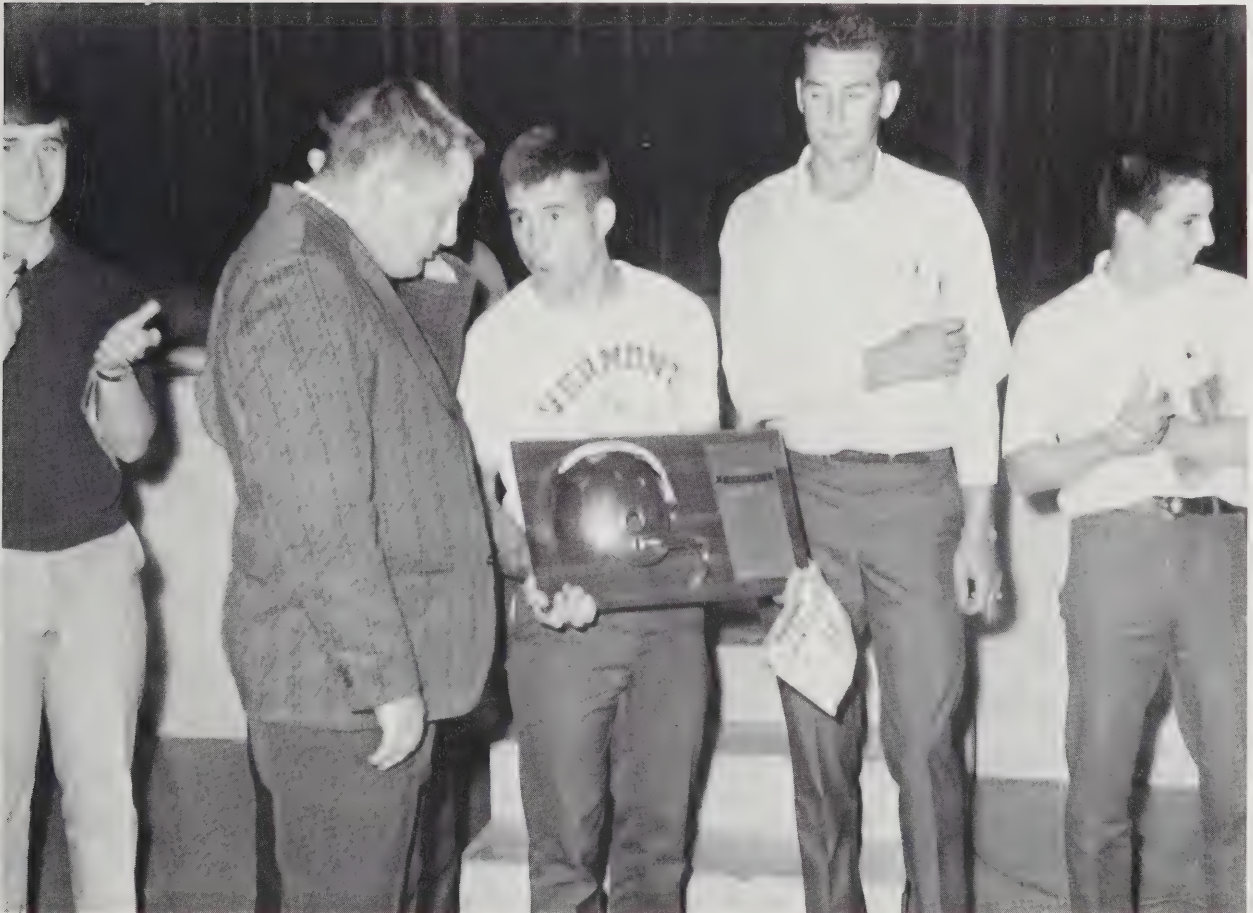

Following the meal, I. R. Dovel, Jr., acting as master of ceremonies, introduced the guests and turned the proceedings over to Luray Athletic Director, Mason Lockridge, for the recognition of the varsity athletic teams.

After this, Chris Hanburger of the Washington Redskins, the guest speaker, related some of his experiences in pro-football, then answered questions.

Eddie Hall receives the Hap Heiser Memorial Award from Chris Hanburger of the Washington Redskins and from Wesley Jones, President of the Luray Jaycees, donors of the award.

While Suellen and Linda cry their hearts out to show their dissatisfaction at living on an island, Jackie and Wayne get acquainted.

THE STEW"

"What blue sweatshirt?" asks Joan (Linda Rothfuss). During the winter scene, the family becomes very touchy and discontented at the hardships of island living. Here, Don (Wayne Kibler) tries to keep warm by the fire as Betty (Debbie Davis) peels apples.

Anne (Suellen Hudson) tries to sneak a date with her neighbor, Roger (played by Doug Flanagan), and gets caught by her boy friend, Howard (Doug Fears).

MEMORIES FROM THE

ENCHANTED FOREST

Miss Lou Ann Fox reigns as Queen of the prom, "The Enchanted Forest," from her beautiful pumpkin throne.

THIS FAR

The procession begins as thoughts of the past twelve years pass through the minds of the graduates.

AND FARTHER

Debbie Davis challenges her classmates to accept the responsibility now placed on them as adults.

Graduates leave the "Halls of Ivy" and head for a bright and promising new future.

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hail to thee, O Luray High.
With glory, laud, and honor,

All with joy and rapture may,
From our hearts and souls forever,
We say Hail to thee, Luray!

The Alma Mater reflects the continuity between classes

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1968

The Senior Class is a special class in any high school for two big reasons: Number one, each senior is finishing up twelve long years of his schooling; and number two, each one is about to embark on a “new life” — whether it is to go to work, or continue his education. Those of us left always hope the graduate will represent his high school well, wherever his desires take him.

Our very best wishes go to all members of Luray High School Class of '68. May you find success and happiness in your future endeavors. It has been a pleasure working with you and I feel confident you will represent your parents, your school, and your community in the highest tradition.

Debbie,
Don't forget all the good times we've had together in the summer of 68.
All of the Page County guys and all of the trips up to Hawkshill swimming Remember Sowers Pine? The Poppy
Red Mustang? The Back Roads? Don't forget the Picnic up on the mountain at Big Meadow (and the Park Ranger Wilson) Always remember, if you hear anyone at your window at night you know I've been fussed at. (If you know what I mean.) What ever you do, remember trying to find the Falls? Well, I guess swinging on that grape vine Billy found was more fun anyway.
I'll never forget that Mr. Blosser who got the oil for us. So Be careful with your little V.W. (Don't let Billy drive it) Good luck with Hanny. Don't let ME Ever! (Don't get too mad at Billy sometimes!)

Love,
Linda

P.S. Don't forget 100 Bottles of Beer!

future to a great
